ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

ACADEMIC PROGRAM LIAISON COMMITTEE

Purpose Statement: The Committee is the primary communications link between the colleges and the Provost's Office on academic program policy and procedural matters. Members convey their college's perspectives and concerns on program issues, and also serve as the main contact for their college, school or campus to address faculty questions regarding academic program development and reporting.

Membership Requirement: Committee members are recommended for appointment by their Deans. They are faculty members or seasoned professional staff members generally familiar with how the University system manages program and course development, and able to interpret University policy for the departments and faculty within their college, school or campus.

CAROLINA CORE APPROVAL COMMITTEE

Purpose Statement: The Carolina Core is the general education core that all undergraduate students must take. The review process for foundational Carolina Core courses is critically important to ensure that the proposed course meets the learning objectives of the proposed Core component(s) https://sc.edu/about/offices_and_divisions/provost/academicpriorities/undergradstudies/carolinacore/requirements/ and is appropriate for students in their early undergraduate years. The proposed course should also be able to be assessed using the rubrics provided https://sc.edu/about/offices_and_divisions/provost/academicpriorities/undergradstudies/carolinacore/faculty-and-staff/learning-outcomes.php.

It is important that the proposed Carolina Core courses be reviewed by faculty with an appreciation of the role of the Core and the particular learning outcomes. The faculty reviewers should also evaluate whether the proposing academic unit is appropriate to offer the course and indicate potential conflicts with other course offerings to the Courses and Curriculum Committee. Finally, the reviewers of the Carolina Core should also review assessment results on the Core and propose any changes to learning outcomes that might be appropriate. All actions of the Carolina Core Approval Committee go to the Faculty Senate Courses and Curriculum Committee and if approved, then to the Faculty Senate.

Membership Requirement: The Carolina Core Approval Committee includes: the Vice-Provost and Dean of Undergraduate Studies (as chair); 1 faculty member representing each area of the Carolina Core from the UofSC Columbia Campus, 1 faculty member to represent all of the Palmetto College campuses, selected by the Office of the Provost and serving for 3-year terms; and, as non-voting members, the currently serving chair of the Courses and Curriculum Committee or designee; Director of Institutional Effectiveness or designee, the University Registrar or designee; and the Director of University Advising or designee. Registrar and Advising representatives should typically be different from those serving on the Courses and Curriculum Committee.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST, COMMITTEE ON

Purpose Statement: The Committee makes recommendations to the Provost regarding conflict of interest and commitment of local unit policies; appeals by faculty; reviews Disclosures of Financial Interest related to federally sponsored projects; and other matters regarding University policy on outside professional activities.

Membership Requirement: The Provost will appoint a University Committee on Conflict of Interest. The voting membership of the committee shall be appointed in the following manner: the Provost shall appoint a minimum of five members from the Columbia campus who hold faculty appointments and who represent a reasonable cross section of the academic disciplines that are involved in scholarly research. The Vice President for System Planning shall appoint a minimum of two members from the Comprehensive and Regional campuses. Voting members are appointed to serve staggered three-year terms.

The University Committee also will have as permanent non-voting members: a representative from the University Legal Department; a representative from the Office of Research Compliance; a representative from the University's Division of Human Resources; and a representative from the Office of the Provost. The chair of the University Committee shall be appointed annually by the provost.

PRESIDENT’S COUNCIL ON SUSTAINABILITY

Purpose Statement: The President’s Sustainability Council is a collaborative forum established by the Office of the President and administered by the Office of Sustainability to engage campus stakeholders in the work and discussion of making the University a national model of sustainable practices embodying the triple bottom line of Environmental Resilience, Economic Prosperity, and Social Justice. Representatives on the council include faculty, staff, and students and draw from all areas of the University’s teaching, research, service, and operations. The Sustainability Council will provide input and expertise to the Office of Sustainability regarding goals, programming, and evaluation of sustainability at the University. Input from members will be collected and reviewed by Office of Sustainability staff to continually develop the Campus Sustainability Plan, update annual goals, and report progress to the President.

DIVERSITY and INCLUSION ADVISORY COMMITTEE (DIAC)

Purpose Statement: The President’s Diversity and Inclusion Advisory Committee’s (DIAC) mission is to advise the University of South Carolina President on diversity, inclusion, equality, and equity. This is a broadly representative and deliberative Presidential advisory group concerned with the representational and equity aspects of diversity and the development and maintenance of working, living, and learning conditions that support the work and development of ALL students, faculty, and staff. As a university-wide committee operating at the Presidential level, DIAC serves as the coordinating committee for all other diversity/inclusion-related organizations on the USC Columbia campus, from whom it may from time to time request reports or representations. The operations of the DIAC shall at all times be inspired and informed by the tenets of the Carolina Creed.

The goals of the committee shall include, but not be limited to the following:

1. Foster a university climate that promotes diversity, inclusion, and equity.
2. Advise on the formulation, review, and application of policies and guidelines that promote the full contribution of, and personal, academic, and career success of all students, faculty and staff.
3. Provide a forum to which faculty, staff and students may refer questions and make recommendations concerning university diversity- and inclusion-related policies and procedures.

Membership Requirement: The University Diversity Committee consists of faculty, staff and students representing all the USC Systems campuses, and community representatives, appointed by the President.

INSTITUTIONAL ANIMAL CARE AND USE COMMITTEE

Purpose Statement: In 1985, Congress passed the Health Research Extension Act (Public Law 99-158). The law directed the Secretary of Health and Human Services, working through the Director of the National Health Institute, to create guidelines for the care of animals used in research and teaching. The creation of an IACUC is one of the requirements set forth by these guidelines. The IACUC is charged with the review of the care and use of all vertebrate animals in research and teaching, submission of reports to the appropriate governing body, review and inspection of animal care facilities and programs, and review of concerns involving the care and use of animals at the University of South Carolina

The Committee shall provide an annual report to the Enterprise Risk Management Oversight Committee via the Research Safety and Compliance Oversight Committee. This report shall include: notable areas of success and best practices, critical areas of risk or needs for improvement (facilities, training, resources, and personnel), and specifically identify the top three to five institutional risks associated with biological hazard related research and associated activities.

Membership Requirement: Members are appointed by the Vice President for Research. The committee shall consist of no less than five members and shall include at least: (a) one Doctor of Veterinary Medicine; (b) one practicing scientist; (c) one member whose primary concerns are in a nonscientific area; (d) one individual who is not affiliated with the University in any way other than membership in the committee and whose interest represent those of the general community. The remainder of the IACUC represents the Departments on the University Campus that utilize vertebrate animals. Graduate student members are nominated by the chair and appointed by the President.

INSTITUTIONAL BIOSAFETY COMMITTEE

Purpose Statement: The Institutional Biosafety Committee (IBC) provides local review and oversight for research involving recombinant or synthetic nucleic acid molecules as a condition for University NIH funding. The IBC evaluates research conducted at or sponsored by the UofSC Columbia or UofSC School of Medicine Columbia for compliance with the NIH Guidelines for Research Involving Recombinant or Synthetic Nucleic Acid Molecules. The University's IBC reviews biosafety protocols for research involving recombinant DNA, human-derived samples, human/animal/plant pathogens, and biological toxins. The committee members assess the safety of research projects and identify potential risk to workers, other persons, or the environment. The purpose, principles, and practices guiding the IBC are contained in the IBC Charter on the IBC website.

The Committee shall provide an annual risk assessment to the Enterprise Risk Management Oversight Committee via the Research Safety Senior Committee. This risk assessment will identify the various risks associated with biological research and related activities and will list the major controls in place or being implemented to mitigate these risks.

Membership Requirement: The USC Institutional Biosafety Committee (IBC) is comprised of no fewer than six members. The IBC shall include at least: (a) a Chair; (b) Biological Safety Officer/Administrator; (c) two non-affiliated members; (d) plant or plant containment expert; (e) animal containment expert. Additional members are selected to ensure the collective experience and expertise in recombinant DNA technology and work with other biological hazards, and the capability to assess the safety of this research and to identify potential risks to public health or the environment.

RADIATION SAFETY COMMITTEE

Purpose Statement:

To act pursuant to the State of South Carolina (SC) regulatory requirements for the University to possess a Type A broad scope specific radioactive materials license. Per SC RHA 2.8.2.3.1, the committee must include the Radiation Safety Officer (RSO), a representative of management, and persons trained and experienced in the safe use of radioactive materials. University license conditions require the committee to meet quarterly with a quorum consisting of the Committee Chair, the RSO and at least 3 other members. The committee must control procurement and use of radioactive material and complete safety evaluations for all uses of radioactive material that include a review of facilities, equipment, user training and experience to ensure that radiation doses to students, faculty, staff, visitors and the public remain as low as reasonably achievable and within regulatory requirements. To promote safety per published guidelines and/or regulations, the committee also oversees the usage of scientific equipment containing X-ray tubes, Class 3B and 4 lasers, unenclosed hazardous forms of visible, ultraviolet and/or infrared light, and devices that generate magnetic fields in occupied spaces above 5 Gauss.

The committee shall provide an annual risk assessment to the Enterprise Risk Management Oversight Committee via the Research safety and Compliance Oversight Committee. The risk assessment will identify the various risks associated with use of materials and equipment that generate ionizing and/or non-ionizing radiation related to research and activities; and will list the major controls in place or being implemented to mitigate these risks.

Membership Requirement: The committee shall consist of radiation safety officer and University management appointed by the President or Provost that includes at least one reporting to the colleges (faculty) and one reporting to the university administration. Additional faculty member qualified by training or expertise in the safe use of ionizing and/or non-ionizing radiation shall be appointed by the President or Provost.

CLERY COMPLIANCE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Purpose Statement: The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, or the “Clery Act” as the law is more familiarly known, requires all institutions of higher education which receive federal financial assistance to produce an Annual Security and Fire Safety Report, which may be reviewed by current and future students and employees. Under the Clery Act, the University is required to:

- Collect, classify, and count crime reports as well as crime statistics for specific types of crimes that occur within three geographical categories known as campus property, non-campus property, and public property;
- Submit those crime statistics, along with statistics related to fires that occur in on-campus student housing facilities, to the United States Department of Education in October of each year;
- Publish an Annual Security and Fire Safety Report compiled of those statistics as well as safety-related policies so that it may be reviewed by current and future students and employees;
- Maintain and make available to the public a daily crime log that catalogs alleged criminal activity occurring on-campus as well as a daily fire log that catalogs fires occurring in on-campus student residential facilities;
- Issue campus alerts to the University community through a “timely warning” due to a certain crime occurring in one of the three above-named geographic areas that constitutes an ongoing threat to the safety of the University community;
- Issue an “emergency notification” upon the confirmation of a significant emergent situation that involves an immediate threat to the health or safety, which occurs on-campus; and
- Develop notification procedures for missing students who reside in campus housing.

The University’s Clery Compliance Advisory Committee provides leadership to ensure compliance with the requirements of the Clery Act. The committee shall provide an annual risk assessment to the Enterprise Risk Management Oversight Committee via the Threat Management and Compliance Oversight Committee. The risk assessment will identify the various risks associated with Clery related cases and incidents, and will list the major controls in place or being implemented to mitigate these risks.

STUDENT CARE AND OUTREACH TEAM (FORMERLY BEHAVIORAL INTERVENTION TEAM)

Purpose: As members of the University of South Carolina community it is our duty to uphold the values set forth by the Carolinian Creed; namely to “respect the dignity of all persons and demonstrate concern for others”. As the eyes and ears of our community it is every Gamecock’s responsibility to take action and assist those students who show any type of behavior that could threaten their own safety or the well-being of the University community. These types of behaviors include;

- Self-injurious behavior/ suicidal ideation or attempt
- Concerning behavior (including online activity) that disrupts the mission and/or normal proceedings of University students, faculty, staff, or community.

The committee shall provide an annual risk assessment to the Enterprise Risk Management Oversight Committee via the Threat Management and Compliance Oversight Committee. The risk assessment will identify the various risks associated with behavioral intervention cases and incidents, and will list the major controls in place or being implemented to mitigate these risks.

Mission: The Student Care and Outreach Team consists of a group of qualified and dedicated USC professionals whose mission is to:

- Balance the individual needs of the student and those of the greater campus community
- Provide a structured positive method for addressing student behaviors that impact the university community and may involve mental health and/or safety issues
- Manage each case individually
- Initiate appropriate intervention without resorting to punitive measures
- Eliminate "fragmented care"

Membership Requirement: The Committee includes representatives from Student Conduct and Academic Integrity, University Housing, Law Enforcement and Safety, Counseling and Psychiatry Services, Student Health Services, and is chaired by the Executive Director of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity. Additional individuals with specific expertise may be asked to serve on the committee or participate in committee deliberations as needed.

STUDENT FELLOWSHIPS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

FELLOWSHIPS AND SCHOLAR PROGRAMS SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEES AND ADVISORS

Purpose Statement: The Office of Fellowships and Scholar Programs was established in 1994 to provide a central point for national fellowship advisement for academically talented undergraduates. Scholarship Committees are in place to facilitate university nominations for national fellowships such as the Rhodes, Marshall, Fulbright, Goldwater, Udall, and among others. Scholarship advisors are available to support students in national competitions that do not require a university nomination.

Membership Requirement: The Provost appoints faculty and staff to serve as advisors and committee members for the more commonly sought after national competitions. Professional staff members in the Office of Fellowships and Scholar Programs serve as ex-officio members of the committees and provide a liaison between student applicants and the scholarship committees.
